Choose an appropriate phrasal verbs that match the meaning of the underlined words

1. We need to think of a plan quickly to save the duchess from the grips of that villain.

   (A) come in to
   (B) come up with
   (C) come upon with
   (D) come away with

2. "Before you go on with your story, I have someone here I'd like you to meet," said Andy who then introduced the social worker to the abused child.

   (A) continue
   (B) relay
   (C) retain
   (D) board

3. "We are dining at a restaurant tonight to celebrate," said Mr. Bob to his wife on their fifth anniversary.

   (A) renting out
   (B) staying out
   (C) eating out
   (D) going out

4. "I will not stand for this lack of respect coming from your children," said Mrs. Baker, who then stormed out of the house.

   (A) indulge
   (B) involve
   (C) ignore
   (D) tolerate

5. "Does that man remind you of someone ? I think he looks like your Uncle Bell," I said to Ella.

   (A) mimics
   (B) appears
   (C) resembles
   (D) familiarizes

6. Shelly accidentally saw a copy of the will as she was tidying up the study yesterday.
   (A) glanced upon
   (B) looked over
   (C) read through
   (D) skimmed across

7. Christopher has been putting off plans for his wedding, saying he is busy with work.
   (A) re-enacting
   (B) cutting
   (C) shifting
   (D) delaying

LIVEWORKSHEETS

8. Whitney called off her wedding when she found out about Thomas's affair with her sister.

(A) reported
(B) cancelled
(C) engaged
(D) deleted

9. "It all boils down to you. Are you willing to give the relationship another shot ?" asked Todd.

(A) relates to
(B) omits to
(C) depends on
(D) transfers to

10. Watson and Eugene finally made up after Aunt Orion spoke to both of them about the need for open communication and trust in a marriage.

(A) reconciled
(B) reunited
(C) merged
(D) joined

11. "When do you want us to hand in the paper, Professor Monroe ?" asks Kessler.

(A) present
(B) give
(C) register
(D) succumb

12. "We will kick off the events of the night with a solo performance," said the host of the talent show.

(A) start
(B) assail
(C) honor
(D) discard

13. "You can get the company to pay you back for your expenses at the end of the month," said Alex to his sales team members.
(A) return
(B) refund
(C) reimburse
(D) compensate

14. The admiral finally admitted defeat when less than one-fifth of his battalion remained.
(A) gave out
(B) gave away
(C) gave up
(D) gave off

LIVEWORKSHEETS

15. "You will never let me down with anything that you do, my son," said the clown's mother.

(A) lower
(B) disappoint
(C) transfer
(D) pride

16. The woman passed out when she heard that her husband had been killed in the war.

(A) died
(B) slept
(C) fainted
(D) fell

17. The man was done over by gangsters and had to be admitted to the ICU.

(A) shoved
(B) attacked
(C) cheated
(D) murdered

18. Oliver's car has been giving him problems the past few weeks. He is getting it checked this weekend.

(A) acting up
(B) acting like
(C) acting as
(D) acting upon

19. "Congratulations on getting the project. You're so lucky that you have the boss to back you up" said Howard, feigning jealousy, to her sister, Amy.

(A) support
(B) reverse
(C) confirm
(D) vouch

20. Hayden's mother lost control and cried endlessly when she found out that Hayden had been killed in a hit-and-run.

(A) suck down
(B) broke down
(C) shot down
(D) fell down

LIVEWORKSHEETS