Central Park

Central Park was ¹ first specially made public park in ² USA. ³ park was built between 1857 and 1873, right in ⁴ centre of ⁵ New York. Before that, the area was home to around 1,600 immigrants, mainly ⁶ Irish farmers, German gardeners and African Americans. ⁷ immigrants had to move, and their homes were destroyed to make space for ⁸ park.

The city held ⁹ competition to design the park. ¹⁰ competition was won by Calvert Vaux, ¹¹ British architect, and his business partner, Frederick Law Olmsted.

Then the city employed 20,000 workers, mainly immigrants from Ireland and ¹² Germany (perhaps the same people whose homes were destroyed), to plant trees in ¹³ new park. By 1865, there were more than seven million visitors a year. The Central Park zoo opened in 1864, with ¹⁴ animals from all over ¹⁵ world.

Nowadays, ¹⁶ New Yorkers are not the only people who enjoy the park. It receives about 35 million visitors from outside the city every year and is ¹⁷ important tourist attraction.
