TIP

Remember, write your answers on the question paper first. You will have time to write your answers on the answer sheet at the end of the test.

Some students worry about listening and writing at the same time.

If you quickly write the answers onto the question paper first, you will have enough time to copy them onto the answer sheet later. Remember to check your spellings.

Before you listen, look at the instructions and notes about a town called Langley.

Match the questions with the kind of information you need to answer the questions. The first one has been done for you. There are two kinds of information that you do not need.

	a telephone number
Question 21	the price of something
Question 22	a name
Question 23	a time
Question 24	something in the Town Hall
Question 25	a date
	a place

Now listen to the recording and write the answers to questions 21–25 in the boxes on the question paper.

Did you have enough time to write and listen?

If you have problems and miss one answer, don't worry. Start to listen for the next answer. You can try to answer the question you missed when you listen for the second time.
