

Collocations

Collocations are words that are commonly used together.

When we are talking about our health and being sick, we often use have got and feel.

e.g. I've got a headache.

She's got a fever.

e.g. I feel tired.

He feels hot.

We collocate have got +

(adjective / noun)

We collocate feel +

- 2 Complete the spider diagrams with the words from Activity 3 on page 19 of the Classbook. Then think of two more words of your own to add to each diagram.

