VS8a-c/ VS9a-b Quiz

1. Examine the pictures below to answer the question that follows.

The diagram most likely suggests that most Virginians in the twentieth century moved from–

A. heavily populated cities to less populated cities
B. less populated cities to heavily populated cities
C. urban to rural areas
D. rural to urban areas

2. Railroads were a contributing factor to the growth of cities because they–

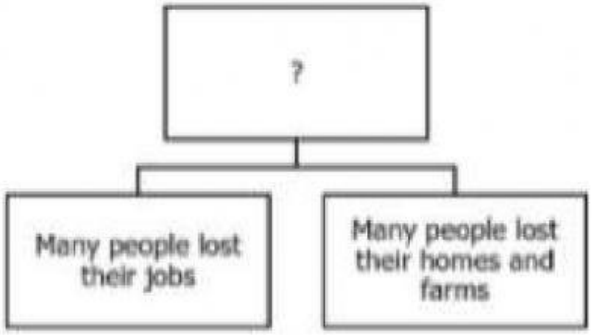

A. Made transportation easier to supply goods and move people to the city
B. helped increase the number of federal government jobs
C. did not allow workers to reach their jobs
D. transported many Virginians out of the country

3. Mrs. Thacker asked her students to write a report about the growth of Virginia's cities in the early twentieth century. Which statement in the report shows that her students misread the information?

A. People looking for coal mining jobs moved to Virginia's southwestern cities.
B. Federal jobs in Northern Virginia caused people to move there in the twentieth century
C. New road building jobs encouraged more people to move to Virginia's cities
D. There were less economic opportunities in Virginia during the early twentieth century

LIVEWORKSHEETS

4. Examine the graphic organizer and answer the question that follows

Identify a title that best completes the graphic organizer.

A. Effects of Reconstruction on Virginians
B. Effects of World War I on Virginians
C. Effects of the Great Depression on Virginians
D. Effects of World War II on Virginians

5. In what year did women get the right to vote?

A. 1900
B. 1910
C. 1920
D. 1930

6. Which of the following African American leaders from Virginia supported equal rights for women?

A. Barbara Johns
B. Maggie L. Walker
C. John Brown
D. Harriet Tubman

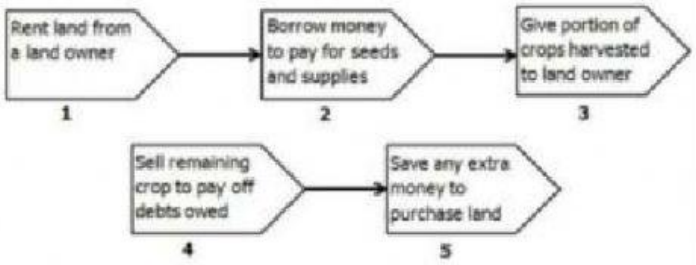

7. This person was an important African American leader before, during ,and after the Civil War. He was an abolitionist and he became the President of a new black college in Petersburg, later known as Virginia State University.

A. John Brown
B. John Mercer Langston
C. Henry "Box" Brown
D. Nat Turner

LIVEWORKSHEETS

8.

Examine the chart below to answer the question that follows.

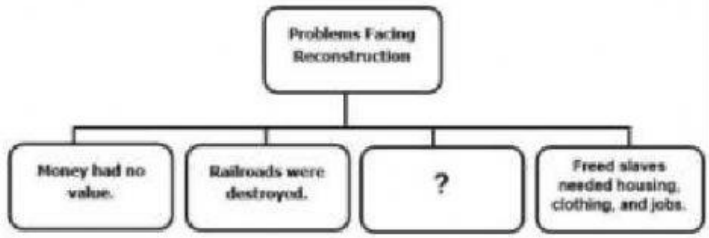

Based on the system illustrated above, what would most likely happen if a farmer grew a lesser amount of crop than expected for the growing season?

A. The farmer would be able to make enough money to cover the loss of crops.
B. The landowner would decrease the amount of crop to be shared.
C The farmer would not be able to pay off debts owed for the year.
D. The land owner would pay the farmer's debts off.

9.

Examine the graphic organizer below to answer the question that follows.

All of the topics in the graphic organizer were problems during Reconstruction. Which answer choice best completes the graphic organizer?

A. There was enough labor to harvest crops.
B. Banks were closed.
C. Plantations were very successful.
D. Economy was strong.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

10. The period following the Civil War in which Congress passed laws designed to help rebuild the country and bring southern states back into the Union is known as-

A. 20th Century
B. Revolutionary
C. World War II
D. Reconstruction

11.

The picture above is an example of-

A. a disagreement
B. desegregation
C. an announcement
D. discrimation

12. Which scenario below is an example of Jim Crow laws?

A. A woman was upset that she was not allowed to vote at this time.
B. An African American man was unable to vote because of an unfair poll tax and reading test.
C. African American, American Indian, and white children attended the same schools.
D. A white girl and an African American girl were able to use the same water fountain.

13. The _____ started schools and hospitals in the South after the Civil War.

A. Conventions
B. Freedmen's Bureau
C. Confederacy
D. Pioneer

LIVEWORKSHEETS

14.

Examine the graphic organizer below to answer the question that follows.

Which of the following should be deleted from the chart in order to make it true?

A. Industries developed
B. Cities grow with people and businesses.
C. The need for more and better roads increased.
D. Tobacco farming became less important.

15.

Read the speech below to answer the question that follows.

> Things were tough in Virginia after the Civil War, but then coal deposits were discovered here. Now my dad and I work in the coal mines and the economy of our little town is growing.

Where is this speaker most likely from?

A. Tazewell County
B. Jamestown
C. Richmond
D. Northern Virginia

LIVEWORKSHEETS