AUXILIARY VERBS

We use auxiliary verbs...

1 to form some tenses:

be: They're talking about profile photos.
have: (1) _____

2 to form the negative:

I don't remember him.

3 in Yes/No questions and short answers. The auxiliary verb always comes before the subject in questions:
(2) _____

In short answers, use the pronoun + auxiliary:

Yes, I have. No, he didn't.

4 in object questions:
What did you do? (What is the object of the question, you is the subject.)
(3) _____

NOTE: in subject questions, we do not use a pronoun or do, does, did:
Who took the photo? NOT Who ~~did they take~~ the photo?

Sometimes we use an auxiliary in short answers to wh- questions too:
Who took the photo? My sister did.

5 in question tags. We form question tags with an auxiliary verb and a pronoun. They usually follow this rule:

+ statement, – tag You sold tickets, didn't you?
– statement, + tag (4) _____

6 to add emphasis to the main verb:
(5) _____

NOTE: do/does/did are always followed by the infinitive:
Everyone does look like they're having fun!
NOT Everyone does looks...
