

To be – is, am, are, was, were

To have – has, have, had

To have – has, have, had

(Subject) is (adjective)

(Subject) has (article + noun)

(Subject) has (article + adjective + noun)

I am (adjective)

I have (article + noun)

I have (article + adjective + noun)

(Subjects) are (adjective)

(Subjects) have (article + noun)

(Subjects) have (article + adjective + noun)

The classroom is large.

She has a classroom.

Marlon has a large classroom.

I am helpful.

I have a drink.

I have an orange drink.

We are sick.

We have a child.

They have a sick child.

Complete these sentences by choosing the correct verb – to be/to have.

1. Singular subject:

The dog ____ lazy.

It ____ a brown nose.

It ____ huge teeth.

One tooth ____ black.

The vet ____ sad.

2. Plural subjects:

The dogs ____ lazy.

They ____ brown noses.

They ____ huge teeth.

Some teeth ____ black.

The nurses ____ sad.

3. Make these past tense – was/were/had

The dog ____ lazy.

The dogs ____ lazy

It ____ a brown nose.

They ____ brown noses.

It ____ huge teeth.

They ____ huge teeth.

One tooth ____ black.

Some teeth ____ black.

The vet ____ sad.

The nurses ____ sad.

Description of my house. Underline the - to be and - to have verbs. Highlight the nouns.

My house is lovely. It is in Glebe. It has a lovely garden. At the front it has a rose garden. At the back it has fruit trees. The house has two floors. Downstairs it has a kitchen, a cosy living room, a big bedroom, a bathroom and a long hall. The livingroom is very relaxing and it has a Upstairs it has two bedrooms and a study. The floor is beautiful. It is wooden. It has old windows.

Write a description of your house. Use My house, it, they, and room names as subjects.
