

I MATCH

1. commercial	a) broadcast, recorded or seen while it is happening; real
2. live	b) a television station
3. channel	c) a newspaper that is printed on large paper; a quality newspaper
4. broadsheet	d) a type of popular newspaper with small pages which has many pictures
5. tabloid	e) an advertisement which is broadcast on television or radio

II CHOOSE THE RIGHT VARIANT

- Officials from British Airways were interviewed by a reporter from Guardian.
- Cosmopolitan seems to be popular with women from 18 to 34.
- What did you think of Times coverage of the earthquake?
- Time is an American weekly news magazine published in New York City.

III COMPLETE THE SENTENCES

provide with / delivered / include / broadcast / remains

- Mail is _____ to their office twice a day.
- It still _____ a secret how the reporter got an interview from D.Beckham.
- A reporter's responsibilities _____ taking interviews, processing the news and writing news items.
- Olympic Games events are usually _____ live to most of the countries of the world.
- Broadsheet newspapers usually _____ reliable news materials.

IV COMPLETE THE SENTENCES CHANGING THE WORDS IN BRACKETS

- The headline of the article on the front page was very _____ (ATTRACT), but the article itself was _____ (SENSATION) as usual.
- A lot of _____ (REPORT) die every year for the idea of providing people with _____ (BIAS) coverage of world events.
- I think this newspaper is a good source of _____ (INFORM).

V REPORT THE SENTENCES

- The editor told the reporter: "Get the article ready by Monday."

- Liz asked me: "What is your favourite magazine?"

- Mary said: "I read this article yesterday."

- Tom asked Liz: "Have you read this newspaper?"
