Routines and Exceptions Homework

Use the present simple to describe routines, and the present progressive to talk about what you are doing now.

For example: I usually read at night, but right now I am watching TV.
Kim usually gets up at 6:00 AM, but today she is sleeping late.

Choose the best form of each verb to complete each sentence.

1) Cody usually (walk) _____ to work, but today he (drive) _____.
2) Teresa often (ride) _____ her bicycle, but right now she (ride) _____ her motorcycle.
3) We usually (travel) _____ by bus, but this morning we (take) _____ the tram.
4) Tom often (fly) _____ a helicopter, but today he (fly) _____ an airplane.
5) They sometimes (take) _____ a taxi to the supermarket, but today they (drive) _____ their car.

Write the correct verb in each box.

6) Shelly often (sail) _____ on a yacht, but right now she (sail) _____ on a ship.
7) I sometimes (drive) _____ my car to the park, but today I (walk) _____.
8) We usually (take) _____ a train to the city, but today we (drive) _____.
9) Marshall often (ride) _____ his bike, but today he (ride) _____ his skateboard.
10) They sometimes (walk) _____ around the city, but today they (drive) _____.

Your turn! Practice talking about routines and exceptions by writing at least two sentences.
