

WORLD MUSIC REVISION

Indian Music	Music developed in Jamaica with strong accents on the 2 nd and 4 th beats of the bar
Pan Pipes	A type of band from the West Indies whose instruments are made from oil drums called pans
Sitar	Lively music that features percussion instruments and has off-beat dance rhythms
Tabla	Music that features voices and percussion
Guiro	Music that can be used to accompany Bollywood dancing
Reggae	A plucked string instrument
African Music	High pitched drums that are usually played with fingers and palms
Castanets	Wooden percussion instrument that is played by scraping a stick along it's ridges
Latin American Music	An instrument made from hollow bamboo tubes
Steel Band	Indian drums
Bongo Drums	A percussion instrument often used by flamenco dancers

