

THE STRUCTURE OF BAHAMIAN GOVERNMENT

Instructions: Use the words from the word box to fill in the blank.

Prime Minister	Deputy Speaker	Governor General	Opposition Leader	Senators
Members of Parliament	Sergeant-At-Arms	Speaker	Commissioner	Civil Servants

1. _____ are people who work in the different Government Ministries.
2. _____ can removes an M.P. whom the Speaker feel is disrespectful.
3. _____ are elected by voters to represent a constituency in Parliament.
4. The _____ keeps order in the House of Assembly.
5. The _____ represents the Queen.
6. The leader of the Government in Parliament is called _____.
7. _____ job is to discuss and amend Bills that are passed by the House of Assembly.
8. When the Speaker in the House of Assembly is absent the _____ takers his/her place.
9. The leader of the party with the second highest number of seats is known as the _____.
10. The government representative on the Family islands is called _____.

@ByAgarthaFrancis