When we talk about different sports and activities, there are three verbs that we use:

A)	play	—if it is a game e.g. play badminton, play volleyball
B)	go	—if the word ends with "ing" e.g. go swimming, go cycling
C)	do	—if it is not a game and it does not end with "ing" e.g. do karate, do aerobics
D)	_____	Some don't need another verb e.g. painting, skipping, drawing

Let's practice

Which verb should you use with the pictures above?

go / play fishing

do / play baseball

do / go Zumba

go / play football

play / do basketball

go / play netball

What is the difference between these pairs of sentences? Do they mean the same thing?

I like to play badminton.

I like playing badminton.

I like to go swimming.

I like going swimming.

I love to do karate.

I love doing karate.

However, you can not do the same with 'enjoy':

You do not say 'I enjoy to play football' you must use "ing" - 'I enjoy playing football'.
