

8.

9.

was excited to see the Prime Minister laiv. The school prynsepel waited in the school lobby for the Prime Minister to arrive. It was a morning filled with celebratory 10.

11.

pawmp. The ceremony and concert went on smuuthli. The Prime Minister enjoyed 12.

his time at his alma mater. He took infawrmel photographs with the students and shook hands with the teachers. What a grand affair.

Exercise 1 - Grammar

Each of the underlined words contains a grammatical error. Write the correct word in each of the boxes.

There seemed to be no end to the snaking queue. It felt as if half of Singapore's populate was in the queue. Tom thought to himself, "Why did Mum have to come to 2.

1.

those sale? It's so crowded!" He was thinking of all the things that he could have been do instead. Tom was at the annual book fair with his mother. He was not keen 4.

3.

5.

in coming, initially. However, his mother managed to persuading him.

6.

He reluctantly agreed in the end. When they first arrived at the exhibition hall, Tom's jaws dropped at the seeing of the crowd. It took them almost the hour just to enter the 9.

7.

8.

hall. By then, Tom was already rather grumpy. The exhibition hall was giant. There were 10.

11.

racks or racks of books of all genres. There were mysterious books, comics, romance novels and many others. His mother told him that he was free to roam about on his own.

12.

They would meet again at the main enter in an hour. Tom began to walk around aimlessly. However, the more he walked around, the more interested he became. Before he knew it, the hour was up. In fact, Tom had even selected three books for himself!

12

Exercise 2 - Grammar

Each of the underlined words contains a grammatical error. Write the correct word in each of the boxes.

Pac-Man is an arcade game developed by a Japanese company, Namco, in May 1.

1980. The game was released in the United States from October 1980. It is considered a classic game and is icon of the 1980s pop culture. Due to its popularity, the game and its relating merchandise brought in high sales figures. Although it was 4.

2.

3.

5.

released in 1980, the game is still been played in the 2010s. During a time of Pac-

Man's release, other games like Space Invaders and Asteroids were also very popular. However, Pac-Man was the highest gross video game. It generated more of 8.

6.

7.

$2.5 billion by the 1990s. In 2015, Pac-Man was featuring in the Columbia Picture movie 'Pixels'. The film was about aliens whose misinterpreted video game feeds as 10.

9.

a declaration of war. The aliens used video games characterise to invade Earth.

11.

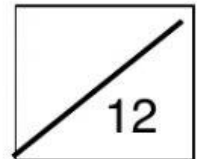

Other popular video games featured in this film including Space Invaders, 12.

Donkey Kong, Centipede and Galaga. The Guinness World Records has awards

the Pac-Man series eight records. It is clear that Pac-Man's popularity has yet to wane.

Exercise 3 - Grammar

Each of the underlined words contains a grammatical error. Write the correct word in each of the boxes.

Noor's father had lost his job recently. Her father's company was cutting costs and 1.

2.

downsize. He was very upset. He had been with the company since ten years. He was worried that at his age, finding a new job would be problem. Noor's mother was a housewife. She had medical issues that prevents her from sitting or standing for long periods of time. Last Friday evening, Noor's parents had a discuss about the situation. They decided that her father would look for a new job. Her mother would 6.

3.

4.

5.

7.

looking for a part time job in the meantime. On the days which both of Noor's parents were not at home after school, Noor would go to her grandmother's house. Her grandmother did not living too far away. Noor could easy walk there after school on her 10.

8.

9.

own. Over the next little months, life was not easy for Noor's family. They barely made 11.

ends meet. Thankfully, it was not longest before Noor's father found a new job. One of his friends had recommended him for a job at his workplace. Her father would not be 12.

earning as many as before. However, at least things were looking up for the family's finances.

Exercise 4 - Grammar

Each of the underlined words contains a grammatical error. Write the correct word in each of the boxes.

Most people say that the aurora borealis, or the Northern Lights, is best seen in the northern parts of Norway. This well-known facts is actually only partly true. The lights can actually also be seen with areas outside of Norway. However, it is indisputable that 3.

1.

2.

Norway has the most variety number of activities for tourists. Tours, cruises, restaurants and hotels add to the magic experience. The Northern Lights are a celestial ballet

4.

5.

6.

among lights. They look like a palette of difference colours mixing across the night sky.

7.

These lights are often a source of inspire for artists, mythology and legends. They 8.

occur due to a collision of gaseous particles in the Earth's atmosphere with another

9.

charged particles released from the Sun. The variation in colours depend on whose 10.

particles are colliding. The more common colour is a pale yellowish-green. It is 11.

producing at an altitude with a lot of oxygen molecules. Nitrogen molecules emit either 12.

blue and purplish-red auroras. This is why there are a mix of colours in auroras.

12

Exercise 5 - Grammar

1.

The sun was beating down on us relentlessly. The heat was very harsh on our facial 2.

and skin. There was no shelter at sight and our water supply was running low. I had 3.

4.

went on a hiking trip in the forest with three of my friends. We left his campsite yesterday afternoon. We were planning to hike back via a most scenic route. We had a 6.

5.

map or compass to guide us. After hiking for about three hours, my friend Sam made an 7.

8.

astonish observation. He thought that we had just passed by our earlier located. We stopped to look around us and realises Sam was right! We looked at our map and 10.

9.

could not figure out why we had gone the wrong way. We attempted to remained 11.

composed and tried a different route. After another two hours, we conclusion that we were lost. This made us nervous and scared. We decided to sit down and discuss what we should do next. Thankfully, another group of hikers happened to come our way. We 12.

seek their help. They were heading out of the forest too. We were relieved to have run into them.

