Have you ever given up on your shopping trip because you can't find what you're after? That was always happening to Mo Bridges until he learnt how to make his own clothes. Now then he has turned his hobby into a successful business producing his favourite fashion accessory: bow ties. He's sold thousands of ties and appeared several times on TV, and he's even found out his country's best basketball teams have selected him as their official tie designer. So what's next for a fifteen-year-old who's already achieved so much? He's planning to study fashion design at college, because although he's been designing clothes for years, he hasn't learnt everything! And his business hasn't started selling suits and jackets yet. That's his main ambition. Most people today have never heard of Mo Bridges, but that might soon change!
