Indicate if the sentences contain comparative or superlative forms.

* Some companies are larger than others.

* The wage is the largest source of income for most people.

* The most successful entrepreneurs are innovators who find new ways to produce goods and services.

* A strong economy is more encouraging than a weak economy to start a small business and to expand existing small companies.

LIVEWORKSHEETS