

THE BUTTERFLY LION

Vocabulary

Chapter 6: The Frenchman

1) Read the following sentences carefully. What do you think the words in bold mean?

- Whenever father came from work, Bertie and the lion could hear his heavy steps on the veranda before he entered the house.
- Before riding his horse, father always checked that it was saddled correctly, so he wouldn't fall down while guarding the cattle.
- When Bertie knew that his father would sell the lion he felt extremely angry, and he ran to his room blazing with fury.
- Every night before bed, Bertie prayed to God that his lion would always stay with him.
- Sometimes, Bertie's legs felt numb in the morning, because the lion slept on them.
- One afternoon, Bertie and the lion ran around the compound for hours, forgetting about their afternoon snack. They came back in the evening, with their tongues out, panting with hunger.
- On another occasion, the lion came too close to the fireplace and hurt its paw. The poor animal started yowling pitifully, calling Bertie, but calmed down quickly after Mother took care of it.
- The day the lion came home, Bertie and his mom gave him five baths. The cub got soaked to the skin in water and it started trembling, so, they had to put it near the stove to dry and get warm.

2) Can you number the pictures 1-9 to match them with the corresponding expression?

① Veranda

② Saddle

③ Blazing with fury

④ Pray

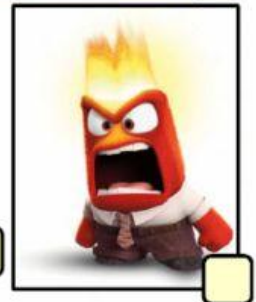

⑤ Numb

⑥ Panting with hunger

⑦ Yowling pitifully

⑧ Soaked to the skin

⑨ Trembling

3) About you! Write about a time when you...

...were panting
with hunger

...got soaked
to the skin

...were blazing with fury

