Adjectives After Linking Verbs

REMEMBER THE RULES

- When an adjective comes after the noun it describes, the two are connected by a linking verb.

  The sky was dark. A storm is threatening.

A. Write the linking verbs, then write the adjectives.

1. Hurricanes are strong. L A
2. A hurricane is dangerous. L A
3. The winds are powerful. L A
4. The rain is heavy. L A
5. During a hurricane, waves are huge. L A
6. Flooding is serious. L A
7. Damage from a hurricane is costly. L A
8. This year the storms were severe. L A
9. The hurricane was forceful. L A
10. The damage to homes was unbelievable. L A

B. Complete each sentence with an adjective that makes sense.

Choose the noun the adjectives describes

11. The clouds were _____ with rain.
12. The wind was _____ with tremendous force.
13. The storm is _____ near the shore.
14. The damage from the wind was _____.
15. Storms like this are _____.

LIVEWORKSHEETS