There is - There are

Look at the map. Put there's, there isn't, there are, there aren't, is there or are there.

What _____ in your town? Well, _____ a school in Lane Street, and next to the school _____ a theatre. _____ some shops, _____ a hotel and _____ a museum too. _____ any cafés but _____ some nice restaurants. Unfortunately, _____ a cinema. _____ a sports centre? No, _____ , but _____ a football pitch behind the school. _____ any bars in your town? _____ any supermarkets? _____ a swimming pool?

Past simple

Complete the sentences with there was / there were in affirmative, negative or interrogative.

1. _____ a good film on TV yesterday morning?
2. _____ any letters for me this morning?
3. In my old house _____ four bedrooms but _____ a big garden.
4. _____ a supermarket in your town in 1910? No, _____
5. _____ some students in class last Monday.

Write the sentences in the past.

Example: I am a student.
I was a student.

1. My dad is a teacher.

_____

2. There are lots of small restaurants.

_____

3. There aren't any shops.

_____

4. Is there a library in your town?

_____

5. There isn't a cinema.

_____

6. Dinosaurs aren't small.

_____

7. We are at the museum.

_____

8. Mrs Taylor starts work at 8.30

_____

9. The school is small.

_____

10. We usually have lunch in a restaurant.

Last Sunday _____