

Revision exercise

Match the following sentences with the correct answers.

Very large companies that have many branches in other countries.		Globalisation
The development and invention of cargo ships and aeroplanes help to speed up globalisation.		Skilled and creative workers
One of the reasons that encourage the setting up of large companies in other countries.		Transportation.
A process by which people around the world are interconnected in ideas and activities.		Interdependent
Countries rely on each other.		Multinational Corporations