1. Complete the sentences with the correct word in its correct form. (10 points)

deaden, proofread, enact, manuscript, downpour, quotation, concisely, dissertation, acronym, manual

    a. In order to _____ the noise, Miss Irene closed all doors and windows.
    b. One of Miss Mary's favourite _____ is "Success is dependent on effort" which is attributed to Sophocles.
    c. Professor Lupin explained the encoded message to his students _____.
    d. The _____ has been sent to the publisher.
    e. His _____ on "slogans" was a document of approximately 10,000 words.
    f. Did you _____ your résumé before enclosing it in the envelope?
    g. Do you know what this _____ stands for?
    h. Hand me the _____ so I can make sense of how these two are connected.
    i. A stricter drug trafficking law must be _____ so as to deter smugglers.
    j. Despite the _____, they managed to ensure the safe landing of the plane.

2. Match the two columns. (10p)

    A. Crack   ___ hand-me-downs
    B. Wear   ___ jargon
    C. Legal   ___ a conversation
    D. Disclose   ___ on speeding
    E. Crackdown   ___ security
    F. Dominate   ___ a compliment
    G. Pay   ___ for criticism
    H. Come in   ___ an opinion
    I. Tighten   ___ a joke
    J. Voice   ___ information

3. Complete with a verb. Use the correct form. There are two extra verbs (10p) boil – tear – play – back – lay – jot – stand – run – break – narrow

    a. The president of the association decided to _____ down after the revelations.
    b. Did you _____ down the address or should I call her again?
    c. The government tried to _____ down the importance of the referendum but to no avail.
    d. I can't believe the dishwasher has _____ down again! Call the repairman.
    e. Will the council really _____ down that dilapidated building finally?
    f. Well, it all _____ down to what you really want to do with your life.
    g. It is said that Jay has a habit of _____ down his colleagues.
    h. They've _____ it down to two possibilities, both of which are equally difficult.