Cool Things to Do in Brighton

Where are you going this weekend? Are you looking to have some fun? Well, why not visit Brighton!

Ghost Walk of the Lanes

Join your costumed guide Tim Martin as he takes you on a 70-minute mysterious ghost walk around Brighton's famous Lanes. The Ghost Walk runs every Friday and Saturday at 7.30pm. £8 adults, £4 children and £5 for students.

Brighton Toy and Model Museum

This museum has one of the largest collections of toys and models in the world. You can see over 10,000 exhibits of toys and models, from trains, planes and boats to dolls and puppets, so everyone will enjoy the visit. Don't forget to visit the shop! Open Tuesday to Saturday from 10am to 5 pm.

Brighton Wheel

Hold on to your hats! Brighton's newest tourist attraction this year is a big wheel next to the sea. Take a ride in the evening and get a fantastic view of Brighton as the sun goes down.

Brighton Bus Tour

There's no better way to see Brighton. Our friendly guides will show you all the sights and sounds of this exciting city. One ticket is valid for 24 hours, so you can get on and off whenever and wherever you like.

Brighton Pier

Take a walk along the 100-year-old pier, which goes 524 metres out to sea. There are lots of fun activities, including a fairground and many places to eat and drink when you reach the end.
