

HOLIDAYS

Before reading... Match the words with the definitions

a holiday resort - a campsite - the UK - a rollercoaster - a language exchange - a silent disco - wild camping - a package holiday

A flight with hotel or apartment: _____

The United Kingdom; it is made up of England, Northern Ireland, Scotland and Wales: _____.

A ride at a theme park: _____ .

A place to stay in a tent or caravan: _____ .

Spending the night in a tent in the countryside, not on a campsite: _____ .

A place which provides holiday accommodation, food and entertainment: _____ .

A place where everyboduy dances, listening to their own music on headphones: _____ .

Staying with a family in a different country to learn a language: _____ .

After reading... Are the sentences true or false?

British people usually have their holidays in winter, in July or August. _____

School children are on holiday from July to September. _____

The most popular location from Brits include Spain, France, Greece and the USA. _____

British people only like to go on holiday outside the UK. _____

Taking your tent or caravan to stay on a campsite is popular in the North of England. _____

England, in a favourite camping area for families and for teenagers. _____