!!! We use hundreds, thousands and millions (with an 's') when we don't use a specific number. Compare:

There are thousands of people at the concert.

The population of the village is 2 thousand.

In numbers over 999, write a comma (,) between:

thousands and hundreds: 11, 000

millions and thousands: 3,000,000

about/around = a bit more or a little less than:

How many students are there? – Around/about 20.

How much is it? – It's about/around 100$.

How long is the programme? – About/around half an hour.
