

Third conditional

1. If Mrs Doe had been operated on immediately, her life (be) saved.
2. If Jordan (know) before, he could have loaned me some money!
3. If you (leave) ten minutes earlier, you wouldn't have missed the train.
4. I would have helped them if one (tell) me that they were in trouble.
5. I would have lent you my car if you (ask) me.
6. If we (born) in the sixteenth century, our lives would have been different.
7. If John had been walking carefully, he(not fall) badly.
8. I (not be angry) if you had told me the truth.

If clauses dialogue

1) Complete this exercise with the correct form of the verbs in parentheses.

A: We had a great time at Drew's house Sunday. Why didn't you come?

B: I had to study Spanish.

A: If you (come) with us, you (see) an awesome movie.

B: Yeah? What?

A: We rented Back to the Future. It's about a kid whose time travels back to his parents' high school days. He changes his own future. In the end, his parents...

B: Wait-Don't tell me. If you (tell) me the ending, you(spoil) it for me. I want to see it myself.

A: OK. But have you ever thought about that?

B: About what?

A: About how things could be different. You grew up here in Baileyville, and you're almost an adult now. But what about your childhood.....

(be) like if you(be born) in a different family?

B: Let's see. If I(have) a different family, I
(not grow up) here in Baileyville.

A: And if you(not grow up) here, I (not meet) you.

B: That's true. But getting back to the here-and-now, how did you do on the Spanish test?

A: I flunked. I wish I (not take) that course. I'm going to fail.

B: You just don't study enough. If you (study) more,
you (pass) this course easily this semester.

A: That's easy for you to say. You always get A's.

B: Sometimes I don't. It's not automatic. I (not get) A's unless
I (study) hard.

A: I suppose you're right.

B: If I(be) you, I (try) to do better on the next test.
