

FREQUENCY ADVERBS

Frequency adverbs help us describe how often an action occurs, or how many times the action has occurred.

Most common: always, usually, often, sometimes, hardly ever, never.

Frequency

Adverbs

always usually often sometimes hardly ever never

Examples

She always brushes her teeth after lunch
He usually drinks coffee in the morning
They often read books
We sometimes wake up late
He hardly ever gets angry
I am never late

GRAMMAR STRUCTURE

✓ Positive:

Subject

Frequency adverb

Verb

Complement

Subject

Verb "To be"

Frequency adverb

Complement

A EXERCISES

1 Choose the best answer to complete each sentence.

He __ early on Sundays.

- a. gets up usually
- b. usually gets up

Lily __ late for school.

- a. is never
- b. never is

She __ cake for dinner.

- a. sometimes has
- b. has sometimes

I __ my teeth after lunch.

- a. brush always
- b. always brush

We __ Chinese food.

- a. eat sometimes
- b. sometimes eat

What do you do after lunch?

- a. I usually wash the dishes
- b. I wash usually the dishes

Adriana __ early for class.

- a. often is
- b. is often

He __ video games.

- a. hardly ever plays
- b. hardly plays ever

2 Reorder the words to make sentences.

I

after

take a shower

always

wake up

I

He

to sometimes

goes

gym

the

often

She

listens

music

to

drink

coffee

in the morning

usually

You

go

to

hardly ever

We

the

disco

never

Vegetarians

eat

meat