✓ Choose the correct verb (Past Simple, Past Continuous or Past Perfect) to complete the sentences below

It was Sunday afternoon. I watched / was watching / had watched a cookery program on TV when I realized / was realizing / had realized how hungry I was. But of course I was hungry; I was eating / eat / hadn't eaten anything since lunch, and I ran / had run / was running a race in the morning.

“Biscuits!” I thought / had thought / was thinking.

My mother gave / was giving / had given me a jar of delicious home-made biscuits. I went / was going / had gone into the kitchen, had opened / was opening / opened the fridge and poured / was pouring / had poured some milk in a big glass. Then I looked / had looked / was looking for the kitchen chair but it hadn't been / wasn't / wasn't being there: somebody was taken / took / had taken it away. And there were no biscuits in the biscuit jar: somebody eat / was eating / had eaten them at all! I was sure I put / had put / was putting the jar there the previous day, and I ate / had eaten / was eating only one cookie. It was very strange.

A few minutes later, I was drinking / had drunk / drank my glass of milk when I heard / was hearing / had heard a loud noise coming from the dining room. I went / was going / had gone there quickly and I opened / was opening / had opened the door. I couldn't believe my eyes. An enormous monkey ate / was eating / had eaten the biscuits excitedly on the kitchen chair.
