

A little practice now (as we go through examples, refer to this graphic)

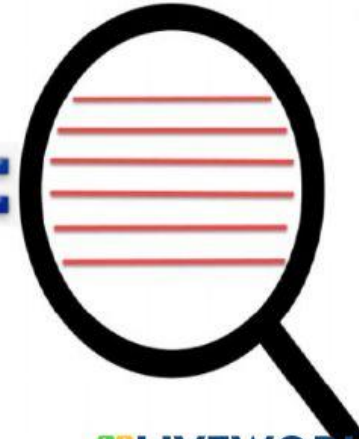

Schema + Evidence = Inference

All the stuff already in your head - what you already know

Clues from the text;
things implied, hinted at

Your knowledge and experience put together with clues leads to your guess or inference