

Choose the correct reported sentence, a) or b).

1 'I've won first prize!'

- a) He said he'd won first prize.
- b) He said he won first prize.

2 'We'll see you later.'

- a) They said we'd see you later.
- b) They said they'd see us later.

3 'You must bring it back.'

- a) He said we must have brought it back.
- b) He said we had to bring it back.

4 'Beth's going to study law next year.'

- a) He said that Beth was going to study law the next year.
- b) He said that Beth's going to study law the next year.

5 'Did you see Jack last night?'

- a) He asked me if I'd seen Jack the night before.
- b) He asked me if I saw Jack the night before.

6 'I might just stay at home.'

- a) She said she might have just stayed at home.
- b) She said she might just stay at home.

7 'I love cheese.'

- a) She said she'd loved cheese.
- b) She said she loves cheese.

8 'What time do you usually get home?'

- a) She asked me what time did I usually get home.
- b) She asked me what time I usually got home.

9 'I couldn't see her anywhere.'

- a) He said that he couldn't see her anywhere.
- b) He said that he couldn't have seen her anywhere.

10 'Has Jill ever been to Berlin?'

- a) He asked me if Jill ever went to Berlin.
- b) He asked me if Jill had ever been to Berlin.