

Paris

Read the text and answer the exercises.

Paris (nicknamed the "City of lights") is the capital city of France, and the largest city in France. Paris is also the centre of French economy, politics, traffic, and culture. Paris has many art museums and historical buildings. As a traffic centre, Paris has a very good underground subway system (called the Metro).

Paris is famous for its cafe culture, the Eiffel Tower, the Louvre, Notre Dame, the Moulin Rouge, pastries, and fashion. It is known for having beauty, elegance, and for being a boldly romantic city.

The French capital is one of the most romantic cities in Europe and one of the world's most visited. There are endless reasons to visit Paris repeatedly: it is a beautiful and cultural city, very walkable, with great sights, and it has been a source of inspiration for many writers, artists, and filmmakers.

Parisian landmark that is also a technological masterpiece in building-construction history.

Musée du Louvre

People call Paris "the City of Love" because of the romantic atmosphere it exudes. In fact, The City of Love isn't just a random nickname given to Paris; it's the perfect description anyone who visited the French capital would give to the city for all the romantic vibes they find there.

Paris—with its music, its architecture, its savants and salons, its learning and enlightenment, not to mention its elegant social life."

In addition to the Eiffel Tower, Paris has countless other gorgeous landmarks and monuments that add to the beauty of the spacious boulevards and their charming cafés. French cuisine is also world famous, and you can find some of the best of it in Paris.

Arc de Triomphe

Lovely street in Paris

1. Write the adjectives which describe this city, in the order they appear in the text.

_____ and _____

2. Complete the sentences using the adjectives mentioned in the text.

_____ museums	_____ atmosphere
_____ buildings	_____ landmarks
_____ culture	_____ cuisine
_____ capital	_____ boulevards
_____ sights	_____ cafés