

Active Voice and Passive Voice in the Simple Present Tense

1. The teachers mark exercise books during recess.

---

2. The zookeepers feed the animals twice a day.

---

3. The attendants bathe the hippopotami weekly.

---

4. The shepherd looks after the flock of sheep attentively.

---

5. Celia makes everyone's beds every morning.

---

6. Mr. Kam opens the supermarket at 9a.m. daily.

---

7. Miss Tan assists Dr. Khu in his clinic.

---

8. The maid hangs out the clothes on sunny days.

---

9. The security team safeguards the bank from robbers.

---

10. Mum keeps the family heirloom in the safe.

---

Active Voice and Passive Voice in the Simple Past Tense

11. Someone stole my purse yesterday.

---

12. The teacher sent the delinquent boys to the headmaster's office.

---

13. The authority awarded Sergeant Bruno for his courage.

---

14. David dented the Mercedes in a freak accident.

---

15. Pauline wore a colourful scarf around her neck.

---

16. Mr. and Mrs. Robinson took the sick dog to the vet immediately.

---

17. Mr. Brown sacked the employee who was perpetually late.

---

18. Mum threw my test papers into the bin angrily.

---

19. Ivan brought up the matter in the meeting.

---

20. Pat the cat gave birth to twelve healthy kittens.

---

Active Voice and Passive Voice in the Simple Future Tense

21. The teacher will announce the results soon.

---

22. The grocer will close the shop early today.

---

23. The hawkers will set up the stalls before 5p.m.

---

24. The maid will bring in the clothes before it rains.

---

25. The monitor will inform everyone about the trip.

---

26. Aunt Nancy will tell me a bedtime story later.

---

27. Devotees will free thousands of birds on Vesak Day.

---

28. Dad will return the ladder to our neighbour in a while.

---

29. My parents will give us angpows for birthdays this year.

---

30. The police will release the murderer due to insufficient evidence.

---

Active Voice and Passive Voice in the Present Continuous Tense

31. The teacher is teaching Chapter 9 at the moment.

---

32. The pupils are planning the programmes for Children's Day.

---

33. They are selling the items in the shop at 90% discount today.

---

34. The treasurer is counting the money collected during the charity sale.

---

35. The chef is frying a piece of chicken for the customer on Table 15.

---

36. Mum is baking my birthday cake now.

---

37. The carpenter is sawing a piece of plank for the shelf.

---

38. The farmer is herding the cattle into the pen.

---

39. The butcher is slaughtering a few pigs.

---

40. Peter and Rachel are performing a romantic duet on the stage.

---

Active Voice and Passive Voice in the Past Continuous Tense

41. The students were making the backdrop of the play at that time.

---

42. The pupils from Class 4B were collecting old newspapers for recycling.

---

43. The school was organizing a charity sale to help the orphanage.

---

44. The chauffeur was driving Datuk Lee around the city.

---

45. The cobbler was polishing those shoes on the rack.

---

46. The ladies were preparing a feast for Father's Day.

---

47. A clown was giving out balloons to all the boisterous kids.

---

48. The priest was speaking to the congregation of worshippers.

---

49. We were wrapping the Christmas presents.

---

50. The students were writing an essay about recycling.

---

Negative Statements in Active Voice and Passive Voice

51. The children aren't taking the dog out for a walk.

---

52. Mdm Ong does not water the garden in the evenings.

---

53. Mr. Tai doesn't maintain the garden himself.

---

54. The guests do not use the toilet at the back of the house.

---

55. The cat was not chasing the rat then.

---

56. Lynn did not invite her classmates to her party.

---

57. Bobbie won't tell us the secret.

---

58. Dad didn't knock down the bar at the toll house.

---

59. The rude waiter did not serve us.

---

60. The workers cannot complete the bridge today.

---