

1 Look at the following sentences. Are they good or bad news?

My cat died?

I've got an A in the exam!

Alice's going to have a baby.

I can't come to the party.

My father gave me a puppy!

My cat got lost.

They moved to their new house.

Adam didn't pass his driving exam

We're going to Paris.

My friend lost his job. He 's very worried.

Nina won the lottery.

I forgot my mobile phone in the taxi.

I found 200 pesos in the street.

Responding to news

Melissa had a car crash. — Did she?
Really?

That's adjective

good	awful
bad	fantastic
horrible	great
brilliant	amazing
wonderful	really bad
really disappointing

E.x. We're moving to a bigger house. – That's amazing!!
My grandmother broke her hip. – That's awful

What a/an + noun

What an amazing thing!

What a great idea!

What a pity.

3 Use the suitable expressions to respond to the following situations

- 1 Your friend passed his driving exam.
- 2 Your cousin is sick.
- 3 Your father gave you 300 pesos.
- 4 A supermarket will be built in your neighborhood.
- 5 Your neighbor didn't pass his tests.
- 6 Your relatives are visiting you next summer holiday.
- 7 There will be a huge hurricane tomorrow.
- 8 Your sister is getting married.