NAME:_____ SECTION:_____

A. Read each item and write the letter of the correct answer on the space provided.

_____1. Which of the following is a visual element that can contribute to a text?
A. A drawing of a character's home
B. An audio recording of a story
C. Sound effects during a scary story
D. Background music

_____2. Which of the following is an example of a multimedia element that can contribute to text?
A. An illustration at the ending of a story
B. A picture of a main character
C. A diagram about a new gadget
D. All of the above

_____3. It creates the mood or the atmosphere of an artwork.
A. line B. color C. gaze D. symbol

_____4. It is produced by vibration as perceived by the sense of hearing.
A. video B. text C. animation D. audio

_____5. You read a story on your tablet and there are bold words throughout the story. When you click on a bold word, a box appears on the screen and gives you the definition of the word. This is an example of a multimedia element that _____.
A. helps set the tone of the story
B. clarifies the meaning of the word
C.helps you hear the sounds the main character would hear
D.helps you visualize what events are happening in the story

_____6. What do we mean by multimedia?
A. The sound that is transmitted over the internet.
B. Images that are printed in a magazine.
C. Image, sound, text, and video that are combined.
D. Computer with speaker and video camera

B. Read the poem. Then answer the questions below. Write the letter of the correct answer on the space provided.

Balloons

Red and yellow, green and blue
Lighter than air
Up, up they flew!
Over the trees,
Across the lake,
Upturned faces in their wake.
Someone points up towards the sky
No bigger than a pinprick
They've sailed so high.

_____7. What things are referred to as yellow, green, and blue?
A. air B. sky C. pinprick D. balloons

LIVEWORKSHEETS

_____8. What is meant by a "pinprick" in the poem?
A. skin discoloration B. sharp needle C. tiny dot D. small boat

_____9. What images do you see in the poem?
A. The colorful balloons flying in the sky
B. People who are looking at the balloons
C. A calm lake surrounded by green nature
D. All of the above

_____10. What is the importance of illustration to the reader's understanding of the poem?
A. It helps the reader see the details about the poem more clearly.
B. It makes the poem more difficult or complicated.
C. It develops the imagination of the learner.
D. It makes the poem useless.

LIVEWORKSHEETS