Prince William was born in London (in / on / at) June 21, 1982. He was the first future king of England to be born (in / on / at) a hospital and the first to go to nursery school. However, his life is not typical. He has bodyguards wherever he goes. He can't fly (in / on / at) the same airplane as his father Prince Charles (because / although) an accident might take the lives of two future kings.

In many ways, he is just like other people his age. He enjoys (watching / to watch) action films and music video. He (hopes / loves / would like) painting, playing video games, drawing, and playing soccer. Some people say that he doesn't want (become / to become) a king, but Prince William will probably be King William someday.
