Lesson 1 Seasons in the Philippines

NAME: _____

GRADE AND SECTION: _____

TEACHER: ELIZABETH D. MENDOZA

Complete the sentences by supplying the missing words on the blanks. Choose your answers from the table.

| | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| seasons | wet season | dry season | flood | PAGASA |
| prevailing winds | Hanging Amihan | Hanging Habagat | location on the equator | water shortage |

1. The season in the Philippines that takes place during the months of December to May and is characterized by less rainfall is called _____.
2. The seasons in the Philippines are caused by its _____ and _____.
3. The prevailing wind that blows from the northeast portion of the country and causes slight to moderate rainfall in the eastern regions is called _____.
4. Less and infrequent rainfall during dry season leads to _____ that harms the animals and plants.
5. The prevailing wind that blows from the southwest portion of the country and causes heavy rainfall in the western regions is called _____.
6. The season in the Philippines that takes place during the months June to November and is characterized by frequent rainfall is called _____.
7. Frequent and heavy rainfall during wet season sometimes results to _____.

LIVEWORKSHEETS