

Read the following passages. Circle the correct answers below.

1. "I'll race you to my house!" Meg shouted. Jane struggled to catch up with her. She ran through the deep snow. Both girls dragged their sleds behind them. As soon as they reached the house, they pulled off their wet mittens, scarves, caps, boots, and coats. Meg made hot chocolate and offered some to Jane.

What might happen next? (1pt)

2. Tim is in middle school for his first year. He is learning that he is growing and needs more food to fill him up. Tim had five candy bars and a Gatorade for breakfast, three bags of chips for lunch, and two big pieces of cake for dessert. He skipped dinner last night . He also drank a chocolate shake for lunch.

What do you think will happen next? (1pt)

3. The bus was completely empty when the bus driver began his day. The first bus stop was in the middle of the busy city.

What would most likely happen? (1pt)

4. Nikki and Pablo found a good spot in the park. They spread a blanket on the grass. Then they took lots of food out of their basket.

What do the kids probably do next? (1pt)

5. Brianna woke up at 7:00 in the morning. She went to brush her teeth. Then she got dressed. She went downstairs to eat breakfast. Then she grabbed her bag and went out the door.
(3pts)

Where do you predict she is going?
