The British are known as a nation of gardeners. Many people in Britain are proud of their houses and gardens and want them to look nice. Every town in Britain has one or more DIYs (do-it-yourself shops) and garden centres. These are places like supermarkets for buying things for the home and garden, and are very popular with British home-owners at the weekends.

Grecia, the toucan was brought to the Zoo Ave animal sanctuary in Alajuela, Costa Rica, on 7 January 2015 with half of his beak missing. Thanks to fundraising efforts, Grecia was fitted with an 18g full-length prosthetic beak around 19 cm long. Since his operation in Jan 2016, Grecia can now feed himself and preen his feathers. He began singing again just days after receiving his beak.
