

ACTIVITY SHEET
ENGLISH 1
QUARTER 3-MODULE 5

Name: _____ 1- _____

Using Polite Expression in Greetings

Activity No. 1 Assessment

Direction: Use the correct greetings to be used in the situation as shown in each picture. (NOTEBOOK)

1. greeting a teacher in the morning _____

2. greeting a visitor in the evening _____

3. greeting a cousin _____

4. greeting the principal in the afternoon _____

5. greeting a friend on the phone _____

Activity No. 2 Additional Activity

Direction: Help the children reach the school. Color the boxes that contain the polite expressions used in greetings. (NOTEBOOK)

Start here.

	Good morning!
See you!		Hi!
	Good evening!
Hello!		See you later!
Good afternoon!		Goodbye!

ACTIVITY SHEET
ENGLISH 1
QUARTER 3-MODULE 7

Responding Appropriately To Polite Expressions

Activity No. 1 What I Know

Direction: Read each situation below. Write the letter of the appropriate polite expression on the blank.

- _____ 1. You received a gift from a friend on your birthday. What will you say to her?
a. I'm sorry. b. Thank you. c. You are welcome.
- _____ 2. You accidentally bumped your sister. What will you say to her?
a. May I borrow your pen? b. I'm sorry. c. Good bye.
- _____ 3. On your way home one afternoon, you saw your teacher. What will you say to him?
a. Good afternoon, Mr. Cruz. b. Good morning, Mr. Cruz. c. Thank you, Mr. Cruz.
- _____ 4. You want a piece of banana during lunch with your family. It is placed near your brother. What will you say to him?
a. Can you please give me some banana? b. I like the banana. c. Pass the banana.
- _____ 5. You saw an old lady carrying a basket. You want to help her. What will you say to her?
a. Can I ask some of your fruits? b. May I help you? c. I'm sorry

Activity No. 2 Assessment

Direction: Write the appropriate polite expression in each situation inside the box.
(NOTEBOOK)

1. You want to borrow your sister's pencil.

2. You accidentally spill the milk on the floor.

3. Your mother tells you that she will go to the market.

4. Your toys are placed on top of the cabinet. You need your father's help.

5. You met your friend Ellise one morning.

