

READING AND VOCABULARY

- 2 Read the article on page 87 about the friendship experiment. Make a note of each person's experience, and then answer the questions below.

- a Who were the two most popular people?
- b Who was the least popular person?
- c Who made friends with Maria?
- d Who didn't get along with Fernando?

VOCABULARY

- 1 Decide if these words, highlighted in blue in the text, usually have positive or negative meanings. Check your answers in the article on page 87.

- | | |
|-------------------------------|-------------------------|
| a self-centered (lines 34-35) | g trustworthy (line 40) |
| b enigmatic (line 27) | h open-minded (line 10) |
| c down-to-earth (lines 3-4) | i uptight (line 64) |
| d sensible (line 54) | j mature (line 17) |
| e stand-offish (line 5) | k laid-back (line 41) |
| f sensitive (line 20) | |

- 2 Choose words from the list in Exercise 1 which best replace the words in bold in these sentences.

- a My ideal friend would have to be someone caring and dependable.
- b I think I'm a level-headed kind of person. I haven't done anything crazy yet, anyway!
- c I'd say I feel relaxed about work - I never let things bother me.
- d People think I'm unfriendly, but actually, I'm just really shy.
- e I wish my parents were more tolerant. It shouldn't be a problem if I go out at night.
- f I prefer to be friends with people older than me. You can have more interesting conversations with somebody with is experienced and grown-up.
- g I know somebody who likes to think she's mysterious. In fact, she's very boring.
- h I know somebody who's very wealthy, but you wouldn't know it because he's so unpretentious.
- i I've got a friend who's really selfish - probably because her parents spoiled her when she was a child.

compatible flexible friendly generous happy lively mature sad sensitive weak

Make nouns from the adjectives in the box adding -ity or -ness. Ex: Compatibility

_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____