

PRONOUNS

1. Look at the sentences and the bold words, write: S (subject pronoun), O (object pronoun), A (possessive adjective), P (possessive pronoun)

- ___ 1) I live in London.
- ___ 2) My name's Anna.
- ___ 3) My parents don't visit me very often.
- ___ 4) They have a flat in London, but mine is in Oxford.
- ___ 5) It's cheap.
- ___ 6) New York is famous for its parks.

S verb O (Who? / What?)
 A + noun (Whose?)
 P without noun (Whose?)

2. Complete the chart:

Subject pronouns (I called)	Object pronouns (I called him)	Possessive adjectives (my friend)	Possessive pronouns (This is mine)
I			mine
	him her it
	us		ours
you their

3. Look at the pairs of sentences and choose the correct options:

- 1) Is it your / yours book? Is it your / yours?
- 2) It's not our / ours house. It's not our / ours.
- 3) It's my / mine book. It's my / mine.

DIRECT / INDIRECT PRONOUNS AND WORD ORDER

4. Study the rule in the box, underline in the sentences direct objects and circle indirect objects:

- 1) He gave me some money.
- 2) He gave it to me.
- 3) I'm going to lend her my camera.
- 4) I'm going to lend it to her.
- 5) They've shown their friends their new flat.
- 6) They've shown it to them.

Some verbs have two objects:
 1) the direct object (what?) – a thing
 2) the indirect object (to whom?) – a person

5. Look at the sentences in ex 4 and choose the correct options:

If the direct object (sth) comes first, we ¹use / don't use to or for before the indirect object (sb)
 If the indirect object (sb) comes first, we ²use / don't use to or for before the direct object (sth)

6. Read the two groups of verbs. After which verbs do we use to? After which verbs do we use for?

- 1) find, buy, make, cook, get, bring _____
- 2) read, write, offer, send, show, lend, give, take, bring, sell _____

verb + thing (it / them) + for / to + person verb + person + thing (noun)
