

Conversation practice: What are you wearing to the beach?

- a) Listen and read and rewrite (Escucha y lee el siguiente diálogo; luego reescribe el dialogo en tu cuaderno).

Context: Two friends talking on the phone minutes before to go to the beach.

Hi Maria! How are you?

Hi Carlos! I am great thanks.
What about you?

I am fine!

Are you ready to go to the beach? What are you wearing?

Yeah. I am ready. I am wearing a blue t-shirt, white shorts, and red sandals. And, what are you wearing?

Nice! I am wearing a white t-shirt, a pink skirt and purple sandals.

Awesome, see you in the beach.

Ok, see you soon.

b) Time to roleplay: work in pairs in the classroom (Trabajo en parejas dentro de la clase)

Write a conversation following the previous example. Just change the names beside your names, clothes beside others, the beach beside to another place, the way to greet and say good bye.
