LESSON: 26
TOPIC: MODAL VERBS AND THEIR EQUIVALENTS
TASK: 1 of 1

1. Choose the correct answer from the given:

1) Jack … play golf for three years.
   a) was allowed to b) will be to c) has been able to
2) Don't make noise please on entering the room, the baby … .
   a) may be sleeping b) must sleep c) might have slept
3) She has thousands of dresses so she … one more.
   a) hadn't to buy b) needn't have bought c) didn't need to buy
4) It's nearly eleven o'clock. They … by now.
   a) will have arrived b) would have arrived c) should have arrived
5) He … for his math exam.
   a) may be studying b) mast have studied c) will be studied
6) When I was younger, I … run very fast.
   a) could b) was able c) was allowed
7) My tooth is killing me. I … a dentist.
   a) must see b) would see c) should see
8) Fortunately he … convince the police that he was innocent.
   a) was likely to b) was allowed to c) was able to

2. Write ONE ODD word out of each sentence:

1) They are said to be professional, so they should join into a team.
2) The passengers mustn't have get off the bus before it stops.
3) The rule is: the readers ought to return with their books in a fortnight.
4) He looks worried they may have told to him the news already.
5) I appeared to be free this evening. Shall we go for out?
6) You must be very careful since you are able to paint such a delicate pictures.
7) We won't eat until they not arrive. They might not have had supper.
8) Sir, am I allowed to see what you are being reading?

3. Fill in the gaps with ONE suitable word:

1) ..... you be able to come to the party next week?
2) You need ..... watch that new TV show. It is really good!
3) They hadn't eaten all day. They must have ..... hungry.
4) He's on vocation and he ..... have to get up early every day.
5) If you work quickly you will be ..... to finish in time.
6) Their house looks terrible. It certainly ..... to be repaired.
7) I don't feel good tonight. ..... you mind if I leave?
8) Is he allowed to ..... the course with me?

4. Write down the part in brackets in English:

1) I (смог) get tickets for the concert.
2) She (должна) be present at the lecture last Monday.
3) You (мог бы) helped her when she asked.
4) My car (нужно) to be repaired before our trip.
5) They (должны) finish their homework before dinner.
6) You (можешь) use my phone if you need.
7) He (нужно) leave soon if he wants to catch the train.
8) You (мог бы) at least helped me last night.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

5. Choose the most suitable sentence to the suggested meaning:

1) Ann didn't have to buy apples. There're plenty of them.
   - Ann didn't buy apples as they have them.
   - Ann was going to buy apples but she didn't.
   - Ann bought apples although there were some.

2) Yes, I can make it to the meeting on Friday.
   - The task will certainly be finished till the meeting time.
   - The task will probably be finished till the meeting time.
   - The task will never be finished till the meeting time.

3) As far as I see she must be the head of the company.
   - The speaker supposes about her position.
   - The speaker guesses about her position.
   - The speaker is sure about her position.

4) I haven't received your letter. It may have got lost in the post.
   - The speaker thinks the letter will come soon.
   - The speaker thinks the letter will come a bit later.
   - The speaker thinks the letter won't come at all.

5) When I retired, I may travel the world if I have the money.
   - The speaker plans to travel as soon as he retires.
   - The speaker hopes to travel after his retirement.
   - The speaker dreams of travelling after his retirement.

LIVEWORKSHEETS