

Las fracciones heterogéneas

a. Escoja el ítem que corresponde a la definición de las fracciones heterogéneas y pongo una X.

- Las fracciones heterogéneas son las que tienen distinto denominador. ☐
- Con las fracciones heterogéneas NO se pueden realizar todas las operaciones básicas (sumar, restar, multiplicar y dividir). ☐
- Con las fracciones heterogéneas SI se pueden realizar todas las operaciones básicas (sumar, restar, multiplicar y dividir). ☐

b. Complete la escritura de fracciones heterogéneas, de acuerdo a su representación gráfica:

|                                                                                     |                                                                                     |                                                                                      |                                                                                       |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|    |    |    |    |
|    |    |    |    |
|    |   |   |   |
|  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |