Helen: No, you have to go through the woods to get to it. Then you go up to the top of the hill. The castle is on the top of the hill, because you can see everything from up there.

Exercise 2: Read the story

Have you heard of Nessie, the Loch Ness Monster?

Loch Ness is a very large, deep lake in Scotland. Many people think a monster lives in it. The first report of Nessie was back in the sixth century. A man called St Columba reported seeing a monster in the water, but he told the monster to go back, and he was safe.

'Go back!'

'OK, if you insist.'

Then, in 1933, Nessie was seen again by George Spicer and his wife – she crossed the road in front of their car.

'What a beautiful day for a picnic.' 'Arghhh!'

The next year, a photo was taken of Nessie, which became very famous. It was taken by a doctor – but the photo turned out to be fake.

Since then, there have been several more sightings of Nessie. Some people have tried to take photos and videos, but Nessie is very shy and the pictures are not very clear.

'The paparazzi are everywhere!'

People have also tried exploring the lake, but it is very deep and very dark. Some people watched the lake, while other people used equipment like underwater cameras, microphones and sonar to scan the lake carefully.

People have even explored the lake in submersibles. No one has found anything definite.

There are lots of possible explanations for what people have seen in Loch Ness. Maybe the monster is just a giant eel, a large bird, a tree or a seal. A few people even think it could be a plesiosaur, which is a type of dinosaur.

'Or maybe I'm just unique!'

So, what do you think? Do you believe that Nessie, the Loch Ness Monster, really exists?

Exercise 3: Choose the correct answer

Dear John,
Greetings from Brazil. We're in Rio de Janeiro. This is the most wonderful city I (1) _____ been to and I'm having the best time (2) _____ my life here! We visited Sugarloaf Mountain, we walked through the Tijuca National Park and swam at Copacabana Beach. It's marvelous! I have (3) _____ a lot of local dishes. They're delicious. My favourite is sea food pasta. We haven't visited any museums (4) _____ because Kate doesn't like (5) _____. She finds them boring. Tomorrow we're going on a helicopter tour over the city. Can you believe it? Have you ever been on a helicopter? I'm so excited that I can't sleep and I am (6) _____ this postcard to you now.
See you next week,
Tom
