Used to/Be Used to/Get Used to

1. Don't be afraid to speak English when you go to England. I am sure you will speaking it very quickly.
2. John tends to prefer to work alone. He needs to working in a team.
3. I put a lot of sugar in my tea. Now I never take sugar at all.
4. It will be difficult at first, but I am sure I will soon getting up at sunrise.
5. I hated this hairstyle at first but I am starting to it.
6. I live in Durban many years ago.
7. Working long hours doesn't bother me as I am it.
8. Living in Moscow will be a challenge as I am not the cold temperatures in winter.
9. At first she found it difficult to live alone, but now she is it.
10. My husband have a beard, but now he is clean-shaven.
11. When I was a child I climb trees, but I couldn't do it now.
12. Is your little girl scared of dogs? She be, but now she is starting to them.
13. I am afraid I will never living here. I don't like it, and I never will!
14. Please lower your voice. I am not hearing people shout.
15. I don't really like my new job, but I am sure I will it in time.
16. I be an avid reader, but I don't have time to read any more.
17. I hate driving in London, but now I it.
18. Politicians don't mind public speaking because they it.
20. My sister is a nurse in a large hospital. She working nightshifts.
21. I getting up very early in the morning. I have been doing it for years.
22. If you go to live in England, you will have to driving on the left.
23. She is speaking French as she has to speak it every day.
24. When his wife was alive, she do all the cooking. Now he has to doing it himself.
25. It might take a while, but you will eventually living in a big city.

LIVEWORKSHEETS