Thomas Edison was one of the greatest inventors of all the time. One of his best-known works was the phonograph. He built it in 1877. It was the first machine to record and play sound. Any inventor of this sound machine could be called great. For Edison, it was a very great deed (подвиг). He was partly deaf (частично глухой).

When Tom was a teen, he worked on a train. One day he was late for work. He ran for the train. The conductor tried to help the boy. He grabbed Tom by the ears and pulled him up. He was hurt very much. From that point on, he grew more and more deaf.
