

Victory day

1 Put the letters in the correct order.

Seven yellow squares in the first row and three yellow squares in the second row, intended for the user to place the letters in the correct order to spell the word.

2 What is it?

3 Look at the photo and tick the words which you can see in it.

children
school
red carnations
parade
St. George's ribbon
tank
Red star
fireworks

4 Read the dialogue and complete the text.

Tom: Hi, Bob. How are you?

Bob: Hi, Tom. I am fine, thank you, and you?

Tom: Me, too. Are you going to Red Square to see the  ?

Bob: Red Square?  ?

Tom: Today is the 9th of May. There is a  in Red Square every year.

Bob: And what day is the 9th of May?

Tom: It's Victory Day. On the 9th of May in 1945 the Great Patriotic  ended and people celebrated their victory.

Bob: Oh, it is very interesting. I didn't know about it. And what do people usually do on this day?

Tom: People usually go to Red Square to see the Parade. They wear  and Red stars.

People also take red  and put them at the .

Veterans wear  and watch .

Bob: Thank you Tom. I will ask my father to take me to Red Square today. I want to see the . Goodbye, Tom.

Tom: Goodbye, Bob.