

Writing a REPORT- C1

A) Match the missing parts of the paragraphs correctly.

Introduction

The main purpose of this report is to analyse the effectiveness of language teaching in the local area. It will offer a review of what is available and also make some recommendations on how to improve.

Due to a lack of funding during the economic recession, the facilities available have not been renovated since more than a decade ago. What's more, because of this scarcity

3.

The methodology used by most teachers has not changed over the last 15 to 20 years or so and therefore needs to be improved. Teachers need the correct type of training that is not only 4.

There is a case of follow-the-book syndrome apparent in the local area. Teachers need to be given the freedom to use their creativity and also the training to be 5.

Taking all of the factors of this report into account, I would strongly recommend the following strategies:

- increase funding to secure progress;
- ensure that this funding reaches those that need it the most;
- improve the quality of teacher training;
- increase the availability of teaching-learning resources.

theory based but also practical and ready to input into the system. Some teachers see language teaching as an easy ride and seem to be running down the clock to retirement, to the disdain of their students.

Provided that these recommendations are taken into consideration, language learning methodology will continue to fail to meet expectations.

able to implement it in the classroom. This way resources will be more varied and students will be able to relate to them more easily.

of investment, much of what there is has been over used and/or damaged to some extent. Many modern private language centres have sprung up around the city in recent years but they are both unaffordable and difficult to monitor. There are a fair few teachers working who are quite frankly not up to the job.

B) Match the missing headings. Then decide what rubric could be?
