

MODAL VERBS - HOUSEHOLD CHORES

1. Match the verbs to the nouns.

- | | |
|-------------|----------------------|
| a. Clear | the floor. |
| b. Do | the rubbish. |
| c. Feed | the washing machine. |
| d. Sweep | the car. |
| e. Make | the table. |
| f. Run | the cat. |
| g. Take out | the ironing. |
| h. Wash | your bed. |

2. Complete the sentences with the correct form of these verbs:

cook – load – do – mow – hang out – vacuum – lay – walk

- | | |
|--------------------------|--|
| a. Who's going to | the dog this afternoon? |
| b. It's raining! Did you | the washing this morning? |
| c. You | the dishwasher, but you didn't switch it on! |
| d. Is it your turn to | lunch today? |
| e. People don't | the lawn in winter. |
| f. Could you | the table for six, please? |
| g. I | the washing-up yesterday. |
| h. Have you | the carpet yet? |

3. Choose the best option.

- Breakfast is finished! We need someone to lay – clear the table.
- Jonathan! Have you made – done your bed yet?
- Here's the clean washing. Whose turn is it to make – do the ironing?
- Angela! I need you to hang out – take out the rubbish, please.
- Herbert is going to mow – vacuum the lawn.
- It's stopped raining. You can run – hang out the washing now!

4. Complete the conversation with the correct form of have to.

- A: What kind of chores (you) do at the summer camp?
B: I make my bed every morning.
A: And outside your room? (you) work in the kitchen?
B: No, I don't. The kitchen staff load and unload the dishwasher, and they also take out the rubbish.
A: What about your clothes?

B: We
that, but we run the washing machines because the supervisors do hang out the washing.