RHONA-THE-RIDER

This is the story of Rhona-the-Rider. She lives in a very small house with white walls, a red roof and a little blue door. The house is not in the town centre. It is far away. There is an interesting thing about Rhona's house: there are many bicycles in each room. There are blue bicycles in the dining room, red bicycles in the bedroom, green bicycles in the bathroom and yellow bicycles in the kitchen. There are so many bicycles in the house that there is only room for a table and a chair. Nothing else. Every night Rhona puts two bicycles on the floor and she sleeps there. She says it is a comfortable bed!

Rhona loves cycling. She cycles in the morning, in the afternoon and in the evening. She uses a different bicycle every time.

Annie is Rhona's friend. She visits Rhona every day, after lunch. She knocks at the little blue door: 'knock', 'knock', and the answer is always the same:

– "Hello Annie, Let's go for a ride".

Then Rhona takes one of the bicycles from the house, a different one every time. Annie takes exactly the same bicycle every day: a very old little bicycle from the dining room. And off they go! They ride to town, to the park, to the old castle near the hill, to the river,... everywhere!

Tarragona, 29th June

Dear Emily,

Today I am visiting Tarragona with my mum and my dad. David, my brother, is not with us today because he is in a summer camp in Girona. He is having a very good time there with his new friends.

Tarragona is a wonderful city with lots of Roman monuments. The beach is fantastic. Tomorrow we are going to Port Aventura. Last year I went to Port Aventura too and it was GREAT!

Come and visit us soon!

Love,

Pilar xxx
