

Verbs: to have and to need

- Choose the correct meaning for each sentence
 - I have a laptop () Necessity/Obligation () Possession
 - She has to go to the bank () Necessity/Obligation () Possession
 - We need to buy a new refrigerator () Necessity/Obligation () Possession
 - Barry has to see a doctor () Necessity/Obligation () Possession
 - Donald needs money () Necessity/Obligation () Possession
 - John and I have to study () Necessity/Obligation () Possession
 - I need water () Necessity/Obligation () Possession
 - Jeff and Jill have an apartment () Necessity/Obligation () Possession
 - My dog needs a bath () Necessity/Obligation () Possession

- Create interrogative sentences that fit the answers

- _____
I have two books
- _____
My mom has to cook
- _____
They need to go to the supermarket
- _____
Becky and Ana have a brother
- _____
Ms. Palmer has to go home
- _____
I have a cat
- _____
Mark needs to sleep now
- _____
Harry and I have to study for the test

Plural of the nouns

- Make it in plural

- pen

- backpack

- moose

- baby

- toy

- f) fish _____
- g) church _____
- h) dish _____
- i) volcano _____
- j) chair _____
- k) photo _____
- l) dress _____
- m) foot _____
- n) belief _____
- o) shrimp _____
- p) child _____

Composition: How is your house and your chores about it
Use to have and to need/Plural of the nouns/Parts of the house/Objects